JOIN THE JOURNEY TO PENTECOST!

We have suggested resources that may be more or less appropriate for different age groups. Look out for the depthometer to get a gauge on how suitable the activity will be for the members of your family.

All the links that you need are included in this resource.

Welcome to CELEBRATE@HOME! This resource is compiled to encourage and support you. We think that this is an opportunity to draw close to Jesus as individuals and as families, and also build community together online. This edition focuses on the journey towards our celebration of Pentecost.

At Pentecost we recall the coming of the Holy Spirit. So what does living life in the Holy Spirit mean? Charles Whitehead, our founder together with his wife Sue, says, "To live this fuller life in the Holy Spirit means turning from ourselves and our plans and desires, to God and his purposes and his equipping for our lives. It means listening every day for the prompting and guidance of the Holy Spirit and doing everything in his strength, not our own. In this way we give the control and glory back to God." We hope you and your family will enjoy choosing from ideas in this resource to celebrate and get to know the Holy Spirit more!

How can you celebrate Pentecost at home?

We know that this year has meant we've needed to be inventive with marking out special occasions, so we've put together suggestions for celebrating Pentecost Sunday in style.

Participate in Mass together - If you are not able to go to your parish, and your parish hasn't got a livestream yet, there's plenty on our website. If you've got little ones we recommend checking out some children's liturgy ideas with Colour & Shape.

Birthday Feast - Prepare a delicious dinner to celebrate the birthday of the Church! You could even make a big birthday cake with candles to symbolise the Holy Spirit's tongues of fire. Let your imagination run wild!

Many of us decorated our doors with palms and other greenery to celebrate Palm Sunday. Get creative and make a flame or gather some firecoloured foliage to mark the feast of Pentecost. This is not only a reminder for your household, but also a beautiful sign of faith to others.

One of the gifts of the Holy Spirit is prophecy; sharing truth with "people for their upbuilding and encouragement and consolation" as St. Paul writes in his letter to the Corinthians. We can do this at home by calling forth the gifts in our families.

Invite the Holy Spirit, asking him to share with you something about this person's gifts or unique character. Wait until you have a sense of his prompting, maybe through a word, phrase, image, scripture or even song lyrics coming to your mind. Once you have that sense, share it with that person to bless and encourage them, starting with, "I see in you...".

Check out the blessing cards here. Print them out, colour them in and then ask God which fruit of the Spirit he'd like to pour out in a new way in that person's life. Then you can give them the blessing card as a reminder for their own prayer.
